A Taste of Rondebosch in St. Pete.

by Eleanor L. Bailey and Sharon Bond

A home of historic significance stands in the heart of St. Petersburg, built in the style and quality of the Grootte Schuur design of Cape Dutch architecture. This remarkable house was built on the waterfront of St Petersburg in 1918 by developer Perry Snell (1869-1942).

Having previously visited South Africa, Snell was so inspired by the Grootte Schuur design that, on his return to St. Petersburg, he decided to build a residence reflecting its structural excellence.

Snell, one of St. Petersburg's early developers, was an ardent world traveler and collector. He is known to have gathered mosaics, tiles and statuary from across the globe, returning with them to his beloved state of Florida. Snell's many contributions to this area are memorialized throughout the City of St. Petersburg. The name of the community of Snell Isle is one of many, such recognitions. continued on page 9

Grootte Schuur

Jan van Riebeeck marked out a spot for a barn to be built near 'De Ronde Doorn Bosjen' in 1657. Construction of De Schuur started in the same year. This stately home changed ownership several times before it was bequeathed by Cecil John Rhodes to the prime ministers of the 'federated states' of South Africa. Grootte Schuur has been used as the official residence of the leaders of South Africa since 1911.

Entrepreneurial Development in The New South Africa

by Brian Rockland

A highlight of our recent trip back to Cape Town after ten years, was a visit to Table Mountain. Eunice my wife, Debbie our daughter, and I, rented a car and drove to the cable station to begin our journey to the top of the mountain. As we approached the parking area, a tall African gentleman jumped out from the bushes and gestured for us to drive off onto the side of the road. We quickly realized that there was no parking further up the road, so we did as he suggested. "Joseph" as he introduced himself, was aptly garbed in a yellow plastic jersey (courtesy of Checkers) He thrust his "business card" into my hand and with a large smile on his face announced that my car would be "fine ok" while we went up the mountain.

Rhodesians World Wide

The Rhodesian community in Florida, will have their bi-annual get together on Sunday May 25th from 11 am to dusk at Fort Desoto County Park, (at shelter 13 ) in St Petersburg. After entering the park, take a LEFT at the T-junction and the shelters are to the right. There is no charge to the park or to attend the get together. There are two tolls on the way, totaling about a $1.

The shelter has long tables and benches, and braai areas. It is on the beach and has nice shade trees, good ablution facilities and a children's playground near by. There is a trail to bike, ride, roller blade etc and swimming is great in the ocean.

Please bring EVERYTHING YOU NEED – food, cutlery, plates, ice, drinks, etc. for you and your family for a day at the beach, including charcoal if you want to braai. You may want an umbrella/shade for the beach. As this is a county park, alcohol is not allowed. We look forward to having you for a great day of fun.

Any questions, call Debbie Alvord 727-789-2986 or email deborah.alvord@verizon.net

Touch and Go at 14 Days

Mike and Donna Wallace's granddaughter, Ava, was born with a heart defect and had to have open heart surgery at the tender age of two weeks. The good news is that this little babe in arms, has made a complete recovery and is doing wonderful. Our jubilation and messages of support go out to the entire family.

Important!

Please note that the people who make food up especially for everyone at the Braai, eg. Melktarts, Koeksusters, Boerewors, Biltong, Pies, etc., would really like to have your orders ahead of time whenever possible.

This helps them a helluva lot in deciding how much to make and to take with them to the Braai, so that you can enjoy the freshest food possible.

Please look out for the ads in this newsletter for contacts and phone numbers. (Classifieds are on page 19).

Thank you.

A Little Bit of Luck and a Whole Lot of Hard Work Pays Off!

Marius and Lize Smook won a Green Card in the Lottery last year. They have just arrived back from South Africa after completing their interview, which they passed with flying colors. Well done and congratulations guys. Since arriving in the US just two years ago, Marius and Lize have worked tirelessly to establish their own real estate and mortgage broking business. Who says hard work doesn't pay off?

The Best Little Network in The U.S. of A.

by Sharon Bond

The Tampa Bay area has often been recognized for the great networking and support that we have among fellow South Africans. We know about this, because sometimes, new people who are looking for contacts in our area, have been given Noleen's phone number. We have also heard that people, who are considering immigrating to the United States, have been referred to our neck of the woods, by the South African Embassy, in Washington, DC. It is very satisfying to know, that in less than 8 years, we have established this reputation. Noleen Naude, has worked hard to establish and maintain this network, and with the help of every one of us, it has become a reality. Apart from organizing the bi-annual Braais, she also opens her home to more than 30 women, four times a year, for a "Ladies Coffee Evening."

I believe that the time has come, to expand on what Noleen has built. For some time now, I have wanted to start up a fund for South Africans who are in a desperate or crisis situation.

This thought was inspired by the many South Africans who came to my assistance while I was going through chemotherapy and radiation. I cannot tell you how much help that was to me. With a diminishing income, I was faced with many financial challenges... struggling to pay my rent and other bills, and still keep my business (my only investment) afloat. So, receiving $20 here, and $100 or $200 there, this money often arrived in the nick of time. Having survived this experience, and come out stronger for it, I might add, I feel now, that I am ready to give back to the South African Community.

This concept was discussed recently with Anton DeWet, minister at the Faith United Church of Christ in Clearwater, and Noleen. We have agreed to meet on April 25th, 2003, to discuss how we can develop this idea further. What we have in mind, is to set up a bank account through the church, (a non-profit organization), and have three or four signers to the account. Each individual case that is brought to our attention will be considered for assistance.

Canadian Drugs at Huge Discounts.

by Anton DeWet

George Scheitinger, a member of Faith United Church of Christ, recently initiated a program, that affords people with prescriptions, the opportunity to order their drugs direct from Canada. This can result in a savings of as much as 40-70% less than what you would normally pay in the U.S.

Since there is no middleman, you place the order direct. It should be noted that this is simply an informational service rendered through the church, to help folks without medical insurance. It has been tried and tested and it is working perfectly.

To request an order form, call the church, (727)-799-4602 and ask Sanet Blignaut or Anton DeWet to send you a form.

You can also call George Scheitinger (727) 796-7555, direct to ask him or his staff for a price list. Please leave your name and address with them if you wish to receive updated pricelists.

Basic Computer Maintenance

by Phil Naude

Even with so many households owning at least one computer, many people seem to neglect the most basic computer maintenance. Over time, that lack of maintenance can significantly slow your computer's performance and even (in extreme cases) stop working all together.

Microsoft includes some basic maintenance software with its operating system. The first maintenance tool is called Disk Cleanup. This handy little tool will scan your hard drive for temporary files, it will clean out your Recycle Bin, remove Temporary Internet Files, Lost Cluster files and compress seldom used files. (Windows XP and Windows 2000 Pro only). Essentially it cleans up the odds and ends left behind by other programs that don't take out their own trash.

The second maintenance tool is called Scandisk. This tool as the name describes, scans your hard drive and corrects most faults. Sometimes when you have to restart your computer because of the software not responding or a power outage, faults on your hard drive can occur. Because of these errors, lost clusters can be created, the free space on your hard drive can be reported incorrectly and several other errors can occur. That is why it is so important to shut down a computer from the Start menu and not just turn the power off. Scandisk can also do a surface scan of your hard drive. It will actually scan your hard drive surface by checking to see if a cluster is retaining the electromagnetic sample data written to it in the test. If data written to the hard drive surface is not retained, it is marked as a "bad cluster" and no further data is written to this cluster by the operating system. This usually occurs when a hard drive is starting to fail. This would be an excellent time to back up your data because more bad clusters will appear and the hard drive will eventually fail to operate completely.

The third maintenance tool provided by Microsoft is called Defrag. Defrag is short for defragmenter. Essentially it takes all the data on your hard drive and organizes it in neat sections where the hard drive can access the most used files (like program files) the fastest. Inside the hard drive are several electromagnetic spinning disks onto which data is stored in the form of bits (a 1 or an 0). Defrag places the most frequently accessed files on the outer edge of the disk where it can be accessed faster than if it were on the inside of the spinning disk. This reduces the time you have to wait for the computer to retrieve the data from the hard drive and load the desired program.

The above named programs can be found by clicking on Start then selecting Programs then Accessories and System Tools.

Norton SystemWorks also has its own enhanced versions of these maintenance tools called: Cleansweep, Disk Doctor and Speed Disk. The SystemWorks suite includes several other maintenance and repair tools, all well worth the price.

Basic maintenance is essential to keep your computer running at its utmost potential. This type of maintenance should be performed approximately once a week.

The Longer I Live

submitted by Boo Cumming

The longer I live, the more I realize the impact of attitude on life.

Attitude, to me, is more important than facts. It is more important than the past, than education, than money, than circumstances, Than failures, than success, than what other people think or say or do.

It is more important than appearance, giftedness or skill.

It will make or break a company... a church... a home.

The remarkable thing is we have a choice, Everyday regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day.

We cannot change our past...

We cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way.

We cannot change the inevitable.

The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our attitude...

I am convinced that life is 10% what happens to me and 90% how I react to it.

And so it is with you...

We are in charge of our Attitudes!

Changes at the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services B.C.I.S. Formerly Called the Immigration & Naturalization Service

by Neil Lewis, P.A.

The BCIS is an agency of the Department of Homeland Security. The great news is that no longer is John Ashcroft in charge of immigration, but the more reasonable (we hope) Tom Ridge is in charge. The peripatetic wanderings of the agency formerly known as the Immigration & Naturalization Service continue. Prior to being a part of the Department of Justice, the Immigration & Naturalization Service was an agency of the Department of Labor.

New Procedures At Tampa BCIS

Tampa BCIS no longer accepts "walk-ins" for information or filing of Petitions. Instead, you must call (813) 637-3010 on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. (Noon) to schedule an appointment. You must actually speak to an officer to make an appointment, you can't just leave a message.

TSC Processing Times

(As of 03/31/2003) The Texas Service Center is currently working on the following petitions/applications submitted prior to the stated date:

I-130, Petition for Alien Relative (immediate relative of U.S. citizen) filed before 06/08/2001

I-130, for other relatives filed before 04/03/1998

I-765, application for employment authorization (asylum seekers) filed before 12/26/2002

I-539, request for extension of stay filed before 12/20/2002

Groote Schuur

South African Roy Anderson and his North American wife Lisa purchased this historic 1918 Perry Snell estate, in August of 2000. Having first visited the States in 1976, Roy moved to this area six years ago. The couple met at that time during a visit that Roy made to a friend living in Dunedin. Today, Roy and Lisa are the proud parents of eight children, the youngest of whom is the result of their union.

While looking for a larger home to accommodate their large family, Lisa came across the historic Snell estate. Once the whole family had seen the home, they all fell in love with it. This home was particularly appealing to Roy and Lisa because each bedroom has its own bathroom, making it much easier for everyone to get ready for school and work in the mornings.

Though Roy, Lisa and family have enjoyed this graceful home, they have now placed it, and their home in Largo, on the market. Once those two houses are sold, they have set their sights on another property, which combines the best qualities of both homes.

Oil Change Instructions For Men

- Step 1: Go to auto parts store and write a check for $50.00 for oil, filter, kitty litter, hand cleaner and a scented tree.
- Step 2: Discover that the used oil container is full. Instead of taking it back to Auto Zone to recycle, dump in hole in back yard.
- Step 3: Open a beer; drink it.
- Step 4: Jack car up. Spend 30 minutes looking for jack stands.
- Step 5: Find jack stands under kid's pedal car.
- Step 6: In frustration, open another beer and drink it.
- Step 7: Place drain pan under engine.
- Step 8: Look for 9/16 box end wrench.
- Step 9: Give up looking after 15 minutes and use crescent wrench.
- Step 10: Unscrew drain plug.
- Step 11: Drop drain plug in pan of hot oil; burn hand in hot oil, get it all over your clothes in process.
- Step 12: Clean up mess.
- Step 13: Have another beer while watching oil drain.
- Step 14: Look for oil filter wrench.
- Step 15: Give up looking after 10 mins, poke oil filter w/screwdriver and twist off.
- Step 16: Beer.
- Step 17: Buddy shows up to lend technical support, helps finish case of beer; unanimous committee decision to finish oil change tomorrow.
- Step 18: Next day, drag pan full of old oil out from underneath car.
- Step 19: Throw kitty litter on oil spilled during steps 11 & 18.
- Step 20: Beer. No, wait a minute-drunk it all yesterday.
- Step 21: Walk to 7-11; buy beer.
- Step 22: Install new oil filter making sure to apply a thin coat of oil to gasket surface.
- Step 23: Dump first quart of fresh oil into engine.
- Step 24: Suddenly remember drain plug from step 11.
- Step 25: Hurry to find drain plug in drain pan.
- Step 26: Remember that the used oil is buried in a hole in the back yard, along with drain plug.
- Step 27: Drink beer.
- Step 28: Uncover hole and sift through muck for drain plug.
- Step 29: Mutter under breath about first quart of fresh oil, now on the floor.
- Step 30: Drink beer.
- Step 31: Slip with crescent wrench while tightening drain plug, bang knuckles on frame.
- Step 32: Bang head on floorboards in reaction to step 31.
- Step 33: Begin uncontrollable cussing fit.
- Step 34: Throw wrench.
- Step 35: Cuss for additional 10 minutes due to thrown wrench damaging Miss December (1992) in the left boob.
- Step 36: Beer me.
- Step 37: Clean up hands and forehead; bandage as required to stop blood flow.
- Step 38: Beer.
- Step 39: Another beer.
- Step 40: Dump in five fresh quarts of oil. Step 41: Beer.
- Step 42: Lower car from jack stands.
- Step 43: Accidentally crush one of the jack stands.
- Step 44: Move car back to apply more kitty litter to fresh oil spilled during step 23.
- Step 45: Beer.

DIET CONCLUSION

Here's the final word on nutrition and health. It's a relief to know the truth after all those conflicting medical studies.

Diets & Dying

1. The Japanese eat very little fat and suffer fewer heart attacks than the British or Americans.
2. The French eat a lot of fat and also suffer fewer heart attacks than the British or Americans.
3. The Japanese drink very little red wine and suffer fewer heart attacks than the British or Americans.
4. The Italians drink excessive amounts of red wine and also suffer fewer heart attacks than the British or Americans.
5. The Germans drink a lot of beer and eat lots of sausages and fats and suffer fewer heart attacks than the British or Americans.

Conclusion:

Eat and drink what you like. Speaking English is apparently what kills you.

10 Best Excuses If You Get Caught Sleeping At Your Desk

10. "They told me at the blood bank this might happen."
  9. "This is just a 15 minute power nap like they raved about in that time management course you sent me to."
  8. "Whew! Guess I left the top off the white-out. You probably got here just in time!"
  7. "I wasn't sleeping! I was meditating on the mission statement and envisioning a new paradigm."
  6. "I was testing my keyboard for drool resistance."
  5. "I was doing a highly specific Yoga exercise to relieve work-related stress. Are you discriminatory toward people who practice Yoga?"
  4. "Darn! Why did you interrupt me? I had almost figured out a solution to our biggest problem."
  3. "The coffee machine is broken..."
  2. "Someone must've put decaf in the wrong pot..."
- And the #1 best thing to say if you get caught sleeping at your desk...*
1. "...in Jesus' name. Amen"

SA Love Poem — Kaapse Styl

Valentine, oh Valentine,
I smaak you stukkend, say you'll be mine.
You're my morning, my sunshine,
my moon and my stars,
You're my air freshener from the OK Bazaars;
You're my beaded love-letter, my breeze in the night,
You're my coffee, my Cremora, my Blitz firelight.
You're my Crime-Stop, my Tracker, you're my AZT,
My pap, Mrs. Ball's chutney, my Nando's for free;
You're my lambchop, my dewdrop,
my partner in crime,
My chillie, my pepper, my vetkoek sublime.
The list is just endless and this isn't all, You're my Lotto jackpot,
my dop and my zol.
You're my 4X4 when the road is so hilly,
You're the Floro margarine that butters my mielie,
I smaak you, my poppie,
so please be my wife,
'cause, Babe, you're the Tomato
Sauce on the slap chips of life.

Entrepreneurial Development from page 1

The piece of paper that he gave us, said that "all donations would be welcome" in return for his services. This seemed like a good idea at the time, so we headed off to wait our turn for tickets in the long line of people.

The trip up the mountain was simply spectacular. It was a hot December day, and the weather was just gorgeous. The new cable cars turn around while making their way up the mountain, giving everyone inside, a great 360-degree view of the Cape peninsula.

Later on that afternoon we found our car safe and sound, but with no sign of Joseph! As we approached the vehicle, out of the bushes jumped our Joseph, with a beaming smile and an outstretched hand. I had remembered that in the old days, fifty cents would have been most welcome...but this was the NEW SOUTH AFRICA...so I decided to reward Joseph with a much better tip. I looked in my pocket, found a R5 coin and pressed it into his hand, waiting for his thankful response. He looked at what I had given him and he replied, "Sorry Baas the donation is TEN RANDS! For the moment I was quite stunned and made up my mind, that in view of his sheer cheek I would give him more... Since I didn't have a R10 note, it occurred to me that our friend Joseph might be happy with $1 Bill. I asked him for the R5 back again and told him, "I will give you much more than five Rand."

I gave him the Dollar bill, he stared at it, looked up at me, and said... "Baas, this is only eight." We just about cracked up laughing.

Debbie managed to produce a R10 note, which in turn produced an even bigger smile on Joseph's face. He quickly disappeared back into the bushes, waiting for his next "customer."

Debbie and Eunice Rockland outside Oom Samie Se Winkel, Stellenbosch.

We couldn't help but smile for the next hour or two, very happy to know that the parking attendants on Table Mountain know what the Rand/Dollar exchange rate is.

Stellenbosch Se Geld

The very next day we took ourselves off to the winelands and Stellenbosch, an area that we know pretty well from our many years of living in Cape Town. One of the stops that we made, was at Oom Samie se Winkel, one of the better known tourist places that offers a great variety of Afrikaaner nick nacks and African art.

As we left the store, Eunice was approached by an elderly brown gentleman (dronkie?) who asked her for bread for the family. Eunice obligingly gave him some of the coins in her purse... he blinked in the bright Stellenbosch sun, stared at the coins and said, "Meddem, dis nie Stellenbosch se geld nie." Imagine the look on our faces when we realized she had given him quarters, nickels and dimes. We laughed all the way back to Cape Town about that one.

A Few Guide Lines

For those of you who haven't been to Phillippe Park, here is a map for directions on how to get there.

Look for Shelter #2.

You can also visit our website at www.braainews.com where you will find a links to Mapquest. They will have more comprehensive directions.

Please remember to bring your own food, cozzies (bathing suits) and drinks – and remember the Florida Parks law is no alcohol allowed.

There will be koeksusters, melktert, biltong, pies, and of course Britans will be there with all kinds of South African goodies that you can stock up on.

A donation of $5 per person over 18 years of age goes towards paying for this newsletter, the postcards, the stamps, the rent of the bakkie (for the coal, chairs, etc.etc.) the charcoal, the paper, the telephone calls, the post box, the name tags, the pens, and so on.

Thank you for your support, and see you at the braai!

4. “It’s a guy thing” MEANS: There’s no rational thought pattern connected with it, and You have no chance at all of making it logical.
5. “Can I help with dinner?” MEANS: Why isn’t it already on the table?
6. “It would take too long to explain” MEANS: I have no idea how it works.
7. “I’m getting more exercise lately” MEANS: The batteries in the remote are dead.
8. “We’re going to be late.” MEANS: I have a legitimate reason for driving like a maniac.
9. “Take a break, honey, you’re working too hard.” MEANS: I can’t hear the game over the vacuum cleaner.
10. “That’s interesting dear.” MEANS: Are you still talking?
11. “Honey, we don’t need material things to prove our love.” MEANS: I forgot our anniversary again.
12. “You expect too much from me.” MEANS: You expect me to stay awake?
13. “It’s really a good movie.” MEANS: It’s got guns, knives, fast cars and naked women.
14. “You know how bad my memory is.” MEANS: I remember the words to the theme song of Star Wars, the address of the first girl I kissed, and the number plate of every car I’ve ever owned, but I forgot your birthday.
15. “I was just thinking about you, and got you these roses.” MEANS: The girl selling them on the corner was a real babe and was wearing a thong.
16. “Oh, don’t fuss, I just cut myself, it’s no big deal.” MEANS: I have actually severed a limb, but will bleed to death before I’ll admit I’m hurt.
17. “Hey, I’ve got reasons for what I’m doing.” MEANS: What did you catch me at?
18. “She’s one of those rabid feminists.” MEANS: She refused to make my coffee.
19. “I heard you.” MEANS: I haven’t the foggiest clue what you just said, and hope I can fake it well enough so that you don’t spend the next three days screaming at me.
20. “You know I could never love anyone else.” MEANS: I am used to the way YOU scream at me, and realize it could be worse.
21. “You really look terrific in that outfit.” MEANS: Please don’t try on one more outfit, I’m starving.
22. “I brought you a present.” MEANS: They gave out promotional gifts at the rugby game.
23. “I missed you.” MEANS: I can’t find any clean socks, the kids are hungry, and we’re out of toilet paper.
24. “I’m not lost, I know exactly where we are.” MEANS: No one will ever see us alive again.
25. “This relationship is getting too serious.” MEANS: I like you almost as much as I like my truck.
26. “I don’t need to read the instructions.” MEANS: I am perfectly capable of screwing it up without printed help.

Check Our Website

For those of you who have not recently visited the Braai News website, www.braainews.com, I suggest that you do it as soon as possible. This is also a great way to share our newsletter with our friends and family around the world, giving them a chance to see what we're up to over here in the States. So, be sure to email the link to all of your nearest and dearest.

Phil Naude, aka Dr. Phil, has done an incredible job with the site. He has put links to South African newspapers, radio stations, search engines and other SA clubs and organizations to name a few.

If you're searching for a long lost friend or family member in South Africa, relax, Telkom now lists residential and business phone numbers online.

Among the many newspapers you can find online, are: Beelt; Business Day; Daily Mail and Guardian; Die Burger; Die Volksblad; Financial Mail; Pretoria Rekord; Natal Witness; Rapport; Sunday Times; Woza, etc.

Online magazines include Cosmopolitan (SA Edition); Fair Lady; Huisgenoot; Landbou Weekblad in Afrikaans; Sarie in Afrikaans; Woman's Value, and so on.

Longing for some good ole SA accents? Tune into your favorite SA radio station: 5 FM, 702 Talk Radio, 94.7 Highveld Stereo, Capetalk, Capital Radio 604, Good Hope FM, Radio Sonder Grense, Radio Oranje, SA FM.

Or keep up with the rugby, by visiting the Super Rugby or Rugby heaven websites.

Among the many helpful links you can also find out how to check your connection speed, check the Internet Security of your computer, scan your computer for viruses online, get a FREE Firewall to protect your computer while you surf the net.

Need to trace an IP address, or find out who owns a Web site and send anonymous e-mail?

Did you know that you can now track any commercial airline flight within the USA right online with Flight Tracker? Yep... follow a plane from your computer as it makes it's way across the skies. Isn't that awesome?

Philip even has a link to an online English / Afrikaans dictionary. And then, as if that isn't enough, you can visit his personal web site for a much more extensive list of helpful links, internet security and free applications.

Do yourself a favor, and visit www.braainews.com today.

MMMMM.... lick your chops

Bobotie — Serves 4-6

This may be considered the national dish of South Africa, although it is commonly thought that it arrived there with Malaysian immigrants during the 17th century.

- 1 T. vegetable oil
- 2 medium onions, chopped
- 1 large slice white bread
- 1 C. milk
- 2 lb. ground beef or lamb
- Salt and freshly-ground pepper, to taste
- 3 tsp. curry powder, or to taste
- 1 T. brown sugar
- Juice of 1 lemon
- 1/4 C. chopped almonds, plus more for garnish
- 1/4 C. golden raisins (sultanas)
- 1/2 C. chopped Granny Smith or other tart apple
- 3 eggs
- 3 bay (laurel) leaves
- 1 medium onion, sliced and separated into rings for garnish

Heat the oil in a sauté pan over moderate heat and sauté the chopped onions until tender but not brown, about 5 minutes. Reserve.

Soak the milk in the bread. Squeeze the milk from the bread and reserve both the bread and the milk. Combine the onions, bread, meat, salt, pepper, curry powder, brown sugar, lemon juice, chopped almonds, raisins, apple and 1 egg in a large bowl, mixing well with your hands.

Place the meat mixture in a greased 3-quart casserole or baking dish and bake uncovered in a preheated 250°F oven for 30 minutes.

Mix the 2 remaining eggs, reserved milk, and bay leaves and pour over the meat mixture. Decorate with onion rings and extra almonds. Raise the oven temperature to 350°F and bake an additional 45 minutes.
